PRESENTATION

2019 Budget Presentation: Remaining Miscellaneous Funds Budget Presentation

Finance Officer Denise Keller began her presentation to the Board with an overview about the remaining miscellaneous funds, which is the final presentation for the proposed 2019 budget. She briefly discussed the Special Allocation Funds associated with the Olde Towne Center TIF District with the biggest concern being a projected continued downward trend with the anticipated departure of Marshall's from the plaza. There were no other significant items of note with the fund. In addition to the Special Allocation Fund, Ms. Keller provided an overview of the Sewer Lateral Fund, Federal Asset Seizure Fund from the St. Louis County Multi-jurisdictional task force, POST fund and an update on the Capital Budget and the General Funds. All the remaining funds were projected in good order with normal activity projected for the coming budget year.
