From Your Mayor

Friends,

Our amazing community dates to around 1798 when John Ball brought his family out to “the country” and established a settlement near where Vlasis Park is today. On February 9, 1837, the recorded plat for Ballwin was filed with the State of Missouri. Over the years, Ballwin, the community founded by Ball and his descendants grew and prospered. 75 years ago on December 29, 1950, the City of Ballwin was officially incorporated as a fourth-class city under the laws of the State of Missouri. Ballwin, a small community of 750 people in 1950, today us the fifth largest city in St. Louis County with a population of over 31,000 people. I hope you and your family will join mine at Ballwin Days, August 14th thru 17th as we come together to celebrate our great community, its history and its people. Join us, and thousands of your neighbors, as we come together for great music, rides for the young and young at heart, great food and awesome fireworks. Check out the details and schedule for Ballwin Days on page 8-9.

We are in the middle of summer in Ballwin! I hope that in addition to Ballwin Days you and your family are taking advantage of all that Ballwin offers. My son Matt and I love relaxing and keeping cool on a warm afternoon floating down the lazy river at the North Pointe. Ballwin has great facilities for your warm weather enjoyment. Our award winning 9-hole golf course, on Holloway Rd., gets rave reviews and is recognized by golfers all over the region as one of the best places to play.

Or if you prefer pickleball, you can just go up the road from the golf course to enjoy the pickleball courts at Holloway Park. If the line is too long, check out our webpage for other indoor and outdoor courts. You can also check out other great summertime events and activities. Or, if you haven’t checked it out yet, be sure to visit the new playground in Vlasis Park! Trust me, your kids and grandkids will love it!!

If your plans for the rest of the summer includes getting away for a few days with family, be sure to let our awesome Police Department know. Sign-up for the vacation watch program and our officers will keep an eye on your home while you are gone. They will walk around your home and make sure everything is secure. Plus, leave your mobile number and they will call you if they find anything amiss!

Remember, your Aldermen and I want to hear from you! Let us know if you have an issue in your neighborhood or a question or concern about what is happening in Ballwin. You can reach us anytime thru the Ballwin website. If you are at Ballwin Days, I hope you will come up and say hello! I would love to meet you and chat about our city!

It's the 75th Anniversary of the incorporation of the City of Ballwin!

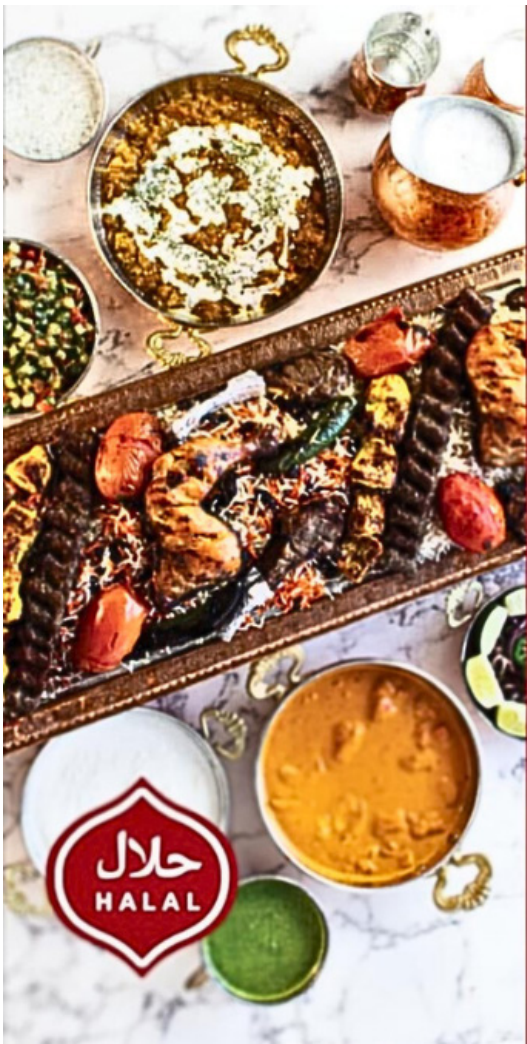

Ballwin was incorporated as a 4th Class City under Missouri Law on December 29, 1950.

Back then, only 750 people called Ballwin home. Since that time, Ballwin has grown into one of the best suburbs in Missouri, frequently recognized as one of the safest cities, with low crime, high property values, a well developed system of parks and recreation facilities, and AAA-rated school districts. Today, more than 31,000 people are proud to call Ballwin home.

The City has unofficially been around much longer, since 1837 when John Ball established the town of Ballwin.

We'll be celebrating the 75th Anniversary for the rest of 2025 with a special logo and a celebration at Ballwin Days. Stay tuned for more to come!

Chief's Corner

Growing up watching Adam-12 and Hill Street Blues (yes, I'm dating myself), I thought the only training a police officer received was how to shoot a gun and drive a patrol car fast. Boy, was I wrong.

To become a police officer in Missouri, you must first complete a police academy program that lasts approximately six months and includes over 700 hours of classroom instruction. Topics covered in the academy include constitutional and statutory law, accident investigation, de-escalation techniques, defensive tactics, firearms training, and emergency vehicle operation. The minimum training syllabus for all police academies is established by the Missouri Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) Commission.

After graduating from the academy, a new officer undergoes sixteen weeks of on-the-job training with an assigned training officer. During this phase, the officer learns the policies and procedures of the Ballwin Police Department. The training officer observes and guides the new officer in applying classroom knowledge to real-life situations. The officer also learns how to navigate the city without relying solely on Manchester and Clayton Roads. After successfully completing the supervised training phase, the officer is permitted to patrol independently while completing the remainder of a one-year probationary period under the supervision of squad leaders.

Training doesn't end after the probationary period. The POST Commission requires all police officers to complete a minimum of 24 hours of continuing education annually. Officers must receive yearly training in legal studies, technical training, interpersonal perspectives, skill development, firearms training, racial profiling, implicit bias, and de-escalation techniques. Most officers exceed the minimum training requirements. Ballwin Police Department officers participate in several firearms and defensive tactics training sessions each year, in addition to specialized training required for specific roles within the department.

Several of our officers are also pursuing associate, bachelor's, or master's degrees from local universities. College coursework helps officers develop advanced technical and leadership skills.

As you can see, police officers are continually learning. Constitutional and statutory laws are always evolving, and criminals are using the latest technology to commit crimes. Officers must stay informed and prepared to investigate and respond to these emerging threats.

- John Bergfeld
Chief of Police

Phone Scams on the Rise

Nearly every week, our officers and dispatchers respond to calls from residents who have fallen prey to scam artists. These criminals are adept at creating a sense of urgency and fear, pressuring individuals into actions they wouldn't normally take, such as sending money to strangers. The emotional and financial toll can be devastating, affecting not only the victims but also their families.

How Scammers Operate:

One alarming tactic is caller ID spoofing, where scammers manipulate the phone number that appears on your caller ID to make it look like the call is coming from a trusted source, such as a local police department or government agency. This deception increases the likelihood that you'll answer the call. Once they have your attention, they may claim you owe fines, have missed jury duty, or need to pay for a family member's bond. They often demand payment via gift cards, wire transfers, or online payment apps. Remember, legitimate organizations will never ask for payment in these ways.

Here are steps you can take to safeguard against these scams:

- Hang Up and Verify: If you receive an unsolicited call claiming to be from a government agency or law enforcement, hang up. Use a trusted contact number to verify the claim.
- Be Skeptical of Unusual Payment Requests: Scammers often ask for payment through unconventional methods like gift cards or wire transfers. If someone insists on such payment, it's likely a scam.
- Don't Share Personal Information: Avoid giving out personal or financial information over the phone unless you're certain of the caller's identity.

Educate and Protect Loved Ones

Scammers often target vulnerable individuals, including the elderly and those unfamiliar with such tactics. It's crucial to educate your family members about these scams and encourage open communication. If someone receives a suspicious call, they should not hesitate to seek advice or report it. To report a phone scam, you should report it to the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) at ReportFraud.ftc.gov. You can also report unwanted calls to the Do Not Call Registry at DoNotCall.gov.

By staying informed and vigilant, you can protect yourself and your loved ones from falling victim to these deceptive schemes. Remember, when in doubt, it's always best to verify before taking any action.

Halloween Safety: Tips for a Spooktacular and Safe Night

Halloween is a time for fun, creativity, and community. To ensure everyone enjoys a safe and memorable evening, consider these expert-backed safety tips for trick-or-treaters, parents, and drivers.

Walk Safely

- 🦇 Use Crosswalks and Signals: Always cross streets at corners, utilizing traffic signals and crosswalks. Look left, right, and left again before crossing, and keep looking as you cross.
- 🦇 Stay Alert: Put down electronic devices and keep your head up. Walk, don’t run, across the street.
- 🦇 Eye Contact with Drivers: Teach children to make eye contact with drivers before crossing in front of them.
- 🦇 Sidewalks First: Always walk on sidewalks or paths. If there are no sidewalks, walk facing traffic as far to the left as possible. Choose routes with the fewest street crossings.
- 🦇 Watch for Vehicles: Be vigilant for cars turning or backing up. Teach children to never dart out into the street or cross between parked cars.

Trick-or-Treat with an Adult

- 🦇 Supervision Matters: Children under 12 should not be alone at night without adult supervision. If kids are mature enough to be out without supervision, they should stick to familiar, well-lit areas and trick-or-treat in groups.
- 🦇 Set Boundaries: Establish a clear route and return time. Stick to well-known neighborhoods and homes with lights on.

Keep Costumes Both Creative and Safe

- 🦇 Reflective Elements: Decorate costumes and bags with reflective tape or stickers, and choose light colors when possible.
- 🦇 Opt for Face Paint: Choose face paint and makeup instead of masks, which can obstruct a child’s vision.
- 🦇 Visibility Tools: Equip kids with glow sticks or flashlights to help them see and be seen by drivers.
- 🦇 Proper Fit: Ensure costumes are the right size to prevent trips and falls. Avoid costumes that drag on the ground.
- 🦇 Safe Accessories: Use soft, flexible costume accessories instead of sharp objects.

Drive Extra Safely on Halloween

- 🦇 Slow Down: Be especially alert in residential neighborhoods. Children are excited on Halloween and may move unpredictably.
- 🦇 Be Cautious at Intersections: Take extra time to look for kids at intersections, on medians, and on curbs.
- 🦇 Driveway Awareness: Enter and exit driveways and alleys slowly and carefully.
- 🦇 Eliminate Distractions: Reduce any distractions inside your car so you can concentrate on the road and surroundings.
- 🦇 Turn on Headlights Early: Drive slowly, anticipate heavy pedestrian traffic, and turn your headlights on earlier in the day to spot children from greater distances.
- 🦇 Peak Hours: Popular trick-or-treating hours are 5:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Be especially alert for kids during these times.

Candy Safety

- 🦇 Inspect Treats: Do not eat any candy before an adult sorts and checks the treats at home.
- 🦇 Signs of Tampering: Closely examine all candy for signs of tampering, including unusual appearance, discoloration, tiny pinholes, or tears in wrappers.
- 🦇 Avoid Homemade Goods: Discard homemade treats unless you know and trust the maker.
- 🦇 Commercially Wrapped Only: Do not eat or accept anything that is not commercially wrapped.
- 🦇 Choking Hazards: Remove choking hazards for young children, including gum, peanuts, hard candies, and small toys.
- 🦇 When in Doubt, Throw It Out: If you’re unsure about the safety of a treat, it’s best to discard it.

By following these guidelines, you can help ensure a safe and enjoyable Halloween for all.

Remember, safety is the real treat!

Ballwin Grows Native

Ballwin Grows Native (BGN) is a native plant initiative for the City of Ballwin, encouraging, teaching, and empowering residents to grow native plants in their outdoor spaces for the endless benefits to the overall health of our local ecosystem. Why and how you ask? Native plants add beauty, support wildlife like Missouri bees, birds and butterflies, are a solution to erosion problems, and provide peaceful places for relaxing and exploring.

BGN was founded by Ballwin residents Krystal Coxon, Lori Stringer, and Eileen Graessle, partnering with Ballwin Parks and Recreation. BGN offers free native plant workshops open to the public. Workshops feature local native plant experts and organizations focused on planting and maintaining native plants, removing invasive species, and gardening in areas with high deer populations. Come see what the buzz is all about at the following future events:

Ballwin Grows Native is calling you to tug on your garden gloves and grab your diggers. On September 13th, a native plant sale and an outdoor demonstration on preparing your yard will run from 10 am to 2 pm at the Pointe. Rain or shine! From 12:30 to 1:30, come inside the Pointe for a presentation on native gardening techniques. Papillon Perennials will provide native plants for sale, where you are certain to find a pollinator's delight for your garden.

Date: Saturday, September 13

Time: 12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

Fee: VIP/Reg FREE
